New York City, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I am taking the liberty of enclosing to you a Catalogue of old coins that was formerly the property of H. Mirimanian, recently deceased, and which property is now owned by Mr. M. Takvorian of this city.

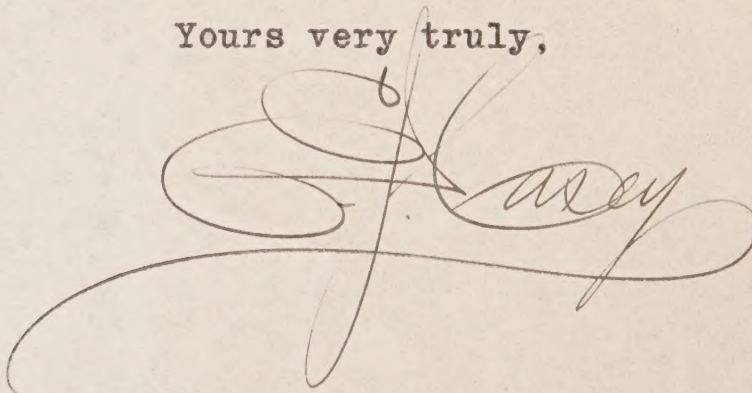

These coins, at the present time, are on deposit in the safe deposit box of a bank in Cleveland, Ohio, and we are trying to arrive at some idea of the valuation, also, if possible, to see if we can find a purchaser of the same.

A friend suggested writing to you and sending you the catalogue.

Any information or any suggestions you may offer will be very thankfully received by

Yours very truly,

EJC:EM
Encl.

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "E. J. Casey". The signature is written over the "Yours very truly," and extends across the bottom of the page.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Edward T. Newell, who sailed for Europe last week, asked me to reply to your communication with regard to the coin collection formed by Mr. H. Mirimanian and now in the possession of Mr. M. Takvorian.

It is impossible to place a valuation on these coins without seeing the pieces. Just at the present time, we know of no one who would care to value them. Collectors in this country very rarely care to purchase whole collections of coins; and invariably collections such as the one about which you have written, go into auction sales. Therefore, I would advise you to write to:

Elder Coin & Curio Co., 9 East 35th St. New York
Mr. Max Mehl, Fort Worth, Texas - or
St. Louis Coin & Stamp Co., 115 North 11th St. New York

Very truly yours,

Curator
